CASL Compliance

We would like to, from time to time, use your email address to send Commercial Electronic Messages (CEMs) that we think would be of particular interest to you. For example, messages regarding:

- Information about upcoming events
- Calls for presentations
- Reminders for registration rate increase (ie: Supersaver, Earlybird) Agenda updates
- Requests to participate in related research

We will make every reasonable effort to minimize these communications, and duplication. At a minimum, we will always give you the opportunity to opt out of receiving such direct marketing or market research contact. To do so, each CEM sent will include an "unsubscribe" mechanism that you can leverage. At anytime, if you feel we are NOT meeting our promises and obligations with respect to CASL, please contact Dustin Rivers immediately at 613.226.8317 or drivers@verney.ca.
